The summit will offer the eight communities eligible for HUD's CDBG-NDR grant funds the opportunity to network with federal, state, philanthropic, and private funders and partners; receive feedback on initial resilient project ideas; identify subject-matter experts for each community's state-led resiliency team; and discuss next steps for building resilient communities in Montana.

The Resilient Montana Summit will be free of charge; breakfast and lunch will be provided. Each eligible community is allowed 3 attendees per jurisdiction, and each identified partner will be allowed 2 attendees per company/organization. Community representatives selected should be knowledgeable about the CDBG-NDR competition and have participated, at some point, in the application process to date. Please RSVP below and provide the name of your jurisdiction or business, as well as the contact information for each team member attending. We will be sending additional materials to those registered for the event prior to January 15th. For those needing accommodations we have reserved a block of rooms at a discounted rate at the Great Northern Hotel (406-457-5500).

Please direct all questions or concerns by email to DOCCDBG@mt.gov, or contact Community Development Division Planning Bureau staff at (406) 841-2770. We look forward to seeing you in January!
